Architecturally-built by WM Humphries to a design by NSW Colonial Architect's Office in 1881. This property was designed to cater for the towns growing population, the Heritage-listed, former Cooranbong Post Office building is as brilliant as it is historic.

Featuring iconic sandstone design and refurbished, yet original posts on an outstanding 2,668m2 block, this is your opportunity to own a stunningly renovated piece of history in an idyllic setting at the base of the Watagan Mountains.

Affectionately known as 'our post office', the owners have poured their heart and soul into this historic project and the results are truly breathtaking.

Not an expense has been spared in the renovation process whilst maintaining the old-world charm of this iconic
