The four bedroom home has a large country still kitchen which opens up onto the dining and living areas. The home is cosy and creates a delightful atmosphere of peace and tranquility.

Outside is a very large entertaining deck where you can have family gatherings or just chill out in the bubbling Spa. And when it's time to do some tinkering there is a man cave at the back of the double car garage.

The local shopping centre is a short 5 minutes stroll away. The train station at Morisset is but a 6 minute drive, while
